Operational Definitions

The total number of complaints made based on the Sex Discrimination Ordinance (SDO), the Disability Discrimination Ordinance (DDO) and the Family Status Discrimination Ordinance (FSDO) for investigation and conciliation. Since there was no such kind of ordinance before 1996, and there was no other mechanism in tracking cases related to diversity-related social conflict, figures for years before 1996 cannot be found.

Footnote

All figures are collected from Equal Opportunities Commission since 1997.

Figure for 1997 includes some cases which were received during the period from the date when the two ordinances took effect to the end of December of 1996.
